Getting to the Heart of Interfaith

The Eye-Opening, Hope-Filled Friendship of a Pastor, a Rabbi & a Sheikh

October 9 & 10, 2009

"Look around you. We are living in a pluralistic world society. ...What we have found is that not talking about our differences really does not help. Even if we differ, even if we disagree, it is crucial for us to deepen the conversation."

Too often religion seems to fuel more hatred than love, more conflict than collaboration. Pastor Don Mackenzie, PhD, Rabbi Ted Falcon, PhD, and Sheikh Jamal Rahman share their evolving journey to deeper interfaith awareness. From their deep commitment and lived experience, they present ways we can work together to transcend the differences that have divided us historically. Together they explore:

- The five stages of the interfaith journey
- The power of our stories
- The core of our traditions
- The promises and problems of our traditions
- New dimensions of spiritual identity
